

Angus, Thongs and Perfect Snogging - World Premiere From Paramount Pictures U.K.

A World Premiere in the Square tonight. Bend It Like Beckham director Gurinder Chadha and her cast and crew all showed on a lovely evening for a great premiere. There weren't many of the usual suspects about so there was plenty of time for fans to get their autographs and pictures. Tonight the fan-line was fronted by a large number of young ladies who were a lot easier on the eye than the typical premiere crowd. Great hot-pink set with flashing lights and a pink lips sofa for cast and celebs to pose on. The sofa was very popular with queues forming at one point. The Angus in the title is a real life fluffy cat that also made a tuxedo-clad trip down the red carpet and was none too fazed about it either. Definitely a cool customer. .Allan Davies was almost as cool, but in a different way.
